

Meet Jerry Weiler Vice President of Operations

Jerry Weiler joined Solbrekk when we started in business in July 2003. He is one of the thirteen employees that have been with us since 2003. Jerry was promoted to Vice President of Operations and became a Solbrekk shareholder in October 2006.

Jerry began his career in technology in 1995 in Virginia Beach, Virginia. He was the Lead Field Engineer for a Government Contract for the Department of Defense Dependent Schools. In 1996 he went to work for Management System Applications as Program Manager and Service Manager. They were a computer networking and security company working mostly with Government contracts. From 1998 through July 2003 he was the operations manager for EDP Computer Systems, a computer network servicing company in Plymouth, MN.

He lives in Belle Plaine, MN. He and his wife Donna have a son and a daughter and one granddaughter. His hobbies are mountain bike racing, skiing, hunting, fishing, and off road vehicle driving.

Here is what a few of his co-workers had to say about him:

- “When I have a client with a fire he always comes through with a solution that makes the fire go out, and we end up with a happy client.”
- “He has a likable personality and no matter what the situation I find myself in, Jerry always has a suggestion or direction for me to go.”
- “Clients look to Jerry as their trusted consultant, and some even consider him a good friend.”
- “Jerry enlightens customers with his knowledge in today’s IT world.”
- “He communicates well and makes sure all the questions are answered to make projects go smoothly.”
- “He is very loyal and considerate of everyone.”
- “There is never a dull day working with Jerry. I enjoy coming in to work on Mondays and hearing about the craziness he experienced over the weekend.”
- “Jerry displays high personal values and is dedicated 100% to helping our customers find workable solutions that fit in line with their business needs. He listens to what they are asking for so we can find the right solution to meet their needs.”
